

Southeastern Theatre Conference
History/Theory/Criticism/Literature Committee
call for papers for
2009 YOUNG SCHOLAR'S AWARD

We invite submissions from graduate students and undergraduate students relating to our committee interest areas of history, theory, criticism, and literature. One graduate and one undergraduate paper will be chosen to win a $225 cash prize and to present their winning papers at the 2009 SETC conference in Birmingham, Alabama.*

Though our interest area is committed to the scholarly exploration of the issues that revolve around any and every theatre presentation, though we focus on traditional studies in history, theory, criticism, and literature; we are also interested in contemporary subjects including: who teaches history, how we teach history, pedagogy, praxis vs. theory, censorship, telling/selling history, subjects that support as well as resist traditional approaches to history, theory, criticism and literature. Papers should be presentation length of 20 minutes/no more than 10 pages in length.

Deadline for submission: December 1. 2008.

Please submit by the deadline: your name and contact information (including email address) one electronic copy (preferred) attached to an email in Microsoft Word format, MLA style, or five paper copies by mail or to this address:
